

Annie Neimand
Department of Sociology Criminology & Law.
University of Florida
Gainesville, Florida
Annien@ufl.edu

Education

University of Florida. Gainesville, FL. MA in-progress expected Summer 2013.
Committee Members: Dr. Charles Gattone, and Dr. Constance Shehan.

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, California State University, Northridge. Northridge, CA.
May 2010.

Areas of Specialization

- Self and identity theory, gender, feminist methods and methodology.
-Aging, the body, media, race.

Professional Experience

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida. Instructor. Department of Sociology,
Criminology & Law Fall 2012-Summer 2013. Introduction to Sociological Principles.

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida. T.A, Department of Sociology, Criminology & Law. Fall 2011-Summer 2012. Social Problems, Marriage and Family.

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida. Tutor. University Athletic Association. Spring
2012-current. Introduction to Sociology, Social Problems.

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida. Guest Lecturer. Department of Sociology,
Criminology & Law. Spring 2012. Gender.

California State University Northridge, Northridge, California. Research assistant for Dr.
Vicki Jenson. Sociology department. Spring 2011-Summer 2011.

California State University Northridge, Northridge, California. Research assistant for Dr.
Herman Dubois. Health and Race. Spring 2010.

California State University, Northridge, Northridge, California. T.A, Department of Sociology. Fall 2009-Spring 2010. Race and Ethnicity in America, Contemporary Sociological Theory.

Downtown Women's Center, Los Angeles, California. Instructor. 2010. Creative Writing, Sociology of Women.

Publications

Women Criminals: An Encyclopedia of People and Issues. Volume 1& 2. Contributing author. Published 2011.

Papers Presented at Conferences.

“Women’s Identities: How women choose, negotiate, and perform their social identities” Presented at Society for Social Psychology and Personality, New Orleans, January 2013.

“A Case for Feminist Qualitative Methods” Presenting at Southern Sociological Society annual meeting, April 2013.

Papers in Process

“Women’s Identities: How women choose, negotiate, and perform their social identities.”

“A Case for Feminist Qualitative Methods.”

“The Saturated Identity: reexamining definitions of the self and identity processes.”

Awards

Academic Excellence Award. California State University, Northridge. 2010

Professional Services

Workshop Chair. Florida Society of the Social Sciences. University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida Fall 2012- current.

Workshops: Prepare and Present: Presenting at Conferences, Spring 2013
Feminist Methods and Methodologies, Spring 2013

Workshop Chair. The Aggregate. University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida Fall 2012-current.

Workshops: Preparing for Finals, Fall 2012, Spring 2013

President of the Welcoming Committee. Florida Society of the Social Sciences. University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida. Fall 2011-Spring 2012.

Rape and Sexual Assault Prevention educator and advocate. California State University, Northridge, Northridge, California. Fall 2009-Spring 2010

Other

Contributing Blogger. The Center for Women Psychology. Los Angeles, CA Summer 2012- present.

