Course Description:

Social and behavioral science courses, like SYG 2000, provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and underlying theory or methodologies used in the social and behavioral sciences. Students will learn to identify, describe and explain social institutions, structures or processes. These courses emphasize the effective application of accepted problem-solving techniques. Students will apply formal and informal qualitative or quantitative analysis to examine the processes and means by which individuals make personal and group decisions, as well as the evaluation of opinions, outcomes or human behavior. Students are expected to assess and analyze ethical perspectives in individual and societal decisions. My expectation is that you will find this a deeply interesting and engaging class.

Course Objectives:

1) Introduce students to the basic concepts, theories, and methods that sociologists use. Course materials and activities provide students opportunities to see how social scientists use varied methods to collect information about specific social issues. Moreover, students will critically assess how that information can be used to frame understanding about why social patterns exist and what might be the possible consequences of those patterns.

2) Provide students with a brief overview of sociology as a discipline within the social sciences that exposes students to strategies to identify, study, and address social issues and research questions. Course activities will provide students with opportunities to apply critical thinking skills to evaluate debates about contemporary social issues and the evidence needed to address the issues.

3) Help students to develop the ability to understand how various social processes and structures affect one another.

4) Encourage students to develop a better understanding of how their own lives and significant relationships are shaped by larger social forces.

5) Provide students with insights about how individuals' interactions with others can affect the larger society.

Student Learning Objectives:

The general education student learning outcomes (SLOs) describe the knowledge and skills that students are expected to acquire while completing a general education course at the University of Florida. The SLOs fall into three categories: content, communication, and critical thinking:

- Content is knowledge of the concepts, principles, terminology and methodologies used within the discipline. Students demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used within the discipline.
- Communication is the development and expression of ideas in written and oral forms. Students communicate knowledge, ideas, and reasoning clearly and effectively in written or oral forms appropriate to the discipline.
- Critical thinking is characterized by the comprehensive analysis of issues, ideas, and evidence before accepting or formulating an opinion or conclusion. Students analyze information carefully and logically from multiple perspectives, using discipline specific methods, and develop reasoned solutions to problems.

Required Text:

Dalton Conley. And You May Ask Yourself: An Introduction to Thinking Like A Sociologist with InQuizitive: 7th Edition (Purple cover). W.W. Norton.

Available Formats:

- E-Book with InQuizitive: Available through the UF Bookstore’s All Access program or purchase at WWNorton.com ISBN: 978-0-393-53773-4
- Paperback with InQuizitive: Available through UF Bookstore’s All Access program or ISBN: 978-0-393-53774-1 (Available for purchase at local bookstores, University of Florida Bookstore or online from Amazon)

Caution: Do not purchase the edition of the textbook labeled “Core.” The “Core” edition of textbook has only 10 chapters. We cover more material than the Core edition.

Materials:

This course uses the InQuizitive interactive quiz tool which comes free with new copies of the textbook. If you purchase a used copy of the textbook with a used registration code for InQuizitive, you will need to purchase a separate InQuizitive code from Norton for $20.00.

Grading:

Final Grades Will Be Determined as follows:

Weekly InQuizitive activities	20%
Weekly reading quiz	20%
Weekly critical thinking and communication about sociology discussion assignments	30%
Final exam	30%

Grade /Percentage:

A = 93-100 %	C = 73-76 %
A- = 90-92 %	C- = 70-72 %
B+ = 87-89	D+ = 67-69 %
B = 83-86	D = 63-66 %
B- = 80-82	D- = 60-62 %
C+ = 77-79 %	E = Below 60 %

Course Requirements:

Each week you have the following requirements:

- (1) Review the Chapter Learning Objectives for the module.
- (2) Read Assigned Chapter.
- (3) Complete the weekly InQuizitive activity. This learning tool should take about 45 minutes to hour to complete each week. Your 2 lowest InQuizitive scores of the semester will be dropped and will not affect your grade. Late InQuizitive assignments will not be accepted. Reminder: Like all other course assignments, access InQuizitive though the course website so that your grade is added to the course gradebook each week.
- (4) Take the weekly Quiz. These quizzes reflect the content of assigned readings. They are timed. You have 10 minutes to answer 10 multiple-choice questions. You can take the quiz up to 2 times. Your highest score will be recorded. The quiz questions are drawn from a large test bank so the questions will not be the same across quizzes. No make-up quizzes will be given unless you have a written excuse from your health care provider other approved excuse according to UF academic policies. Your 2 lowest quiz scores of the semester will be dropped automatically and will not affect your grade.
- (5) Complete Weekly Discussion Assignment. The discussion assignments invite you to reflect on different sociological theories and how they apply to related social issues. You must complete 6 of 13 available discussion assignments over the course of the semester as instructed in Canvas. The assignments will be graded for communication and critical thinking.

Final Exam:

Your final exam in this course will be proctored using Honorlock. No materials (notes, book etc) allowed. Review the Honorlock Student Guide below (this information can also be found in “Start Here” section of your course site) for detailed information.

Honorlock is an online proctoring service that allows you to take your exam from the comfort of your home. You do not need to create an account, download software, or schedule an appointment in advance. Honorlock is available 24/7, and all that is required is a computer, a working webcam/microphone, your ID, and a stable internet connection.

To get started, you will need Google Chrome to download the Honorlock Chrome Extension.

When you are ready to complete your assessment, log into Canvas, go to your course, and click on your exam. Clicking "Launch Proctoring" will begin the Honorlock authentication process, where you will take a picture of yourself, show your ID, and complete a scan of your room. Honorlock will be recording your exam session through your webcam, microphone, and recording your screen. Honorlock also has an integrity algorithm that can detect search-engine use, so please do not attempt to search for answers, even if it's on a secondary device.

Honorlock support is available 24/7/365. If you encounter any issues, you may contact them through live chat on the support page or within the exam itself. Some guides you should review are Honorlock MSRs, Student FAQ, Honorlock Knowledge Base, and How to Use Honorlock. Good luck!

Student Learning Objective Performance Mastery Matrix:

Assignment	Description	%
13 Weekly InQuizitive Activities - The 2 lowest score will be dropped	Weekly InQuizitive activities evaluate student competence in content : i.e., mastery in terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used in Sociology.	20%
13 Weekly quizzes - The 2 lowest scores will be dropped	Weekly Quizzes will evaluate student competence in terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used in Sociology.	20%
13 Weekly discussions – Must complete 6 of 13 discussion assignments	Weekly Discussion assignments will evaluate student competence in clearly and effectively communicating sociological knowledge, ideas and reasoning; i.e., do students express ideas in a convincing, organized, clear and coherent manner that is nearly error free and uses a style and language appropriate to a sociological approach. Discussions will also evaluate student competence in critical thinking, i.e., considering issues from multiple perspectives, and logically analyzing evidence from credible sources and developing reasoned conclusions.	30%
Final Exam	Final Exam will evaluate student competence in terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used in Sociology.	30%

Notes on Taking On-line Quizzes/Tests:

Proceed with a WIFI connection at your own risk. UF recommends that students use a computer with a cable modem connection when taking on-line tests and quizzes, as a “flicker” in your WIFI connection can result in your being disconnected from an in-progress quiz or to page loading errors. Flickers can occur for many reasons. It could be that your roommate just downloaded a movie, too many users trying to get online at the same time at the library, café, or at your apartment complex, etc. The problem is less likely to occur if you are the only user of your modem. We strongly recommend against using WIFI in a public space. If you chose to use a WIFI connection and have a problem, we will not extend deadlines for you or allow retakes. Instead, drop scores are integrated into the class to help you deal with any missed assignments for WIFI flickers or any other reasons beyond the student’s control, as follows.

Missed assignments for reasons beyond the student’s control: The course is designed to allow each student at least one drop score per semester per assignment type to help account for the possibility that something beyond your control occurs (internet connection issue, car trouble, stuck in traffic, laptop stolen, dog eats book). Therefore, we will not extend deadlines due to circumstances beyond your control. The only exception is that if there is a UF computer system outage, then extensions and retakes will always be allowed (see Reporting Technical Problems and Troubleshooting below). If you have a serious, ongoing personal problem or acute medical issue that will impair your ability to complete assignments, please contact your instructor for help.

Reporting Technical Problems: If you experience a technical issue during an online assignment, report it to the UF Help Desk at 352-293-HELP. Even if the issue is not UF-system related, the Help Desk can trouble shoot the issue for you, (e.g., suggest you clear your cache and cookies or use a preferred browser, etc.). If the problem is UF-system related, you have 24 hours to send your instructor your Help Desk ticket number to have a deadline extended.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.”

University Policies and Services:

Academic Honesty: On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

Accommodation for students with disabilities: Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.

UF Counseling Services: Resources are available on-campus for students having any personal problems that interfere with their academic performance and/or who seek support in setting clear career and academic goals. These resources include:

1. University Counseling Center, 301 Peabody Hall, 392-1575, personal and career counseling;
2. Student Mental Health, Student Health Care Center, 392-1171, personal counseling;
3. Sexual Assault Recovery Services (SARS), Student Health Care Center, 392-1161, sexual counseling;
4. Career Resource Center, Reitz Union, 392-1601, career development assistance and counseling.
